

To: Dierker, Carl[Dierker.Carl@epa.gov]
From: BostonGlobe.com
Sent: Thur 10/8/2015 9:36:29 AM
Subject: Today's headlines from The Boston Globe

To ensure you receive your BostonGlobe.com e-mails, please add newsletters@email.bostonglobe.com to your address book.
If you have trouble reading this e-mail, go to <http://www.bostonglobe.com/todaysheadlines>.

10/08/2015

Today's headlines

Today's Paper	Metro	Opinion	Sports	Comics	Crossword
-------------------------------	-----------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	------------------------	---------------------------

Page one

Emerson College may turn Colonial into student center

- The change would be a radical transformation for the Colonial Theatre and make it a type of front porch for Emerson's campus.

DraftKings CEO insists company can police itself

- In an exclusive interview, Jason Robins said DraftKings is "a very ethical company" that sports fans can trust to handle their money.

Pilgrim plant admits to long lapse in fire safety

- The lapse raised the possibility that a control room fire would compromise the plant's ability to safely shut down the nuclear reactor.

Year since Long Island's closure finds safety net still tattered

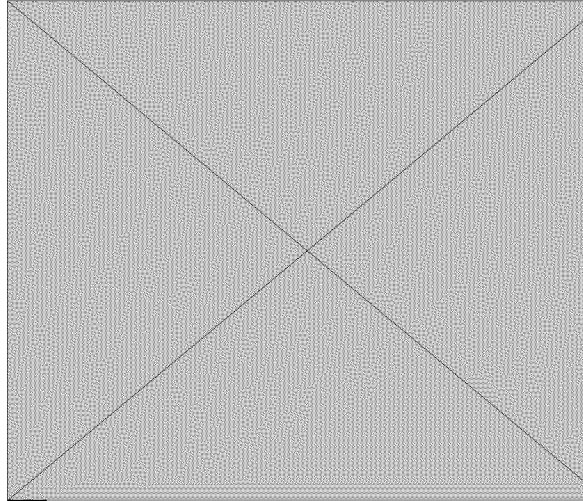

- Recovery and detox beds have yet to be replaced, and many former residents have bounced between programs.
-

Boston City Council could get 14 percent raise

The council would get the raise without taking a vote, through a maneuver not used since at least 1990, officials said.

Splitting with Obama, Clinton opposes Pacific Rim trade deal

She's specifically worried the agreement does not prohibit currency manipulation and that it favors pharmaceutical companies more than patients.

Globe Events

Deck House Redux

A new floor plan and a fresh palette prove the stalwart post-and-beam, open concept design is still relevant.

More Globe Events →

Today's Paper →

The Nation

Marco Rubio doesn't dwell on lack of experience

Rubio faces resistance from some in the GOP who have compared him with Barack Obama in 2008, another freshman senator.

Splitting with Obama, Clinton opposes Pacific Rim trade deal

She's specifically worried the agreement does not prohibit currency manipulation and that it favors pharmaceutical companies more than patients.

S.C. girds for more flooding as cleanup begins

Rivers rose and dams bulged as South Carolina faced another anxious day of waiting for the floodwaters to recede.

The World

Jump to BostonGlobe.com The Nation Section →

Russia and Syria intensify effort to banish rebels

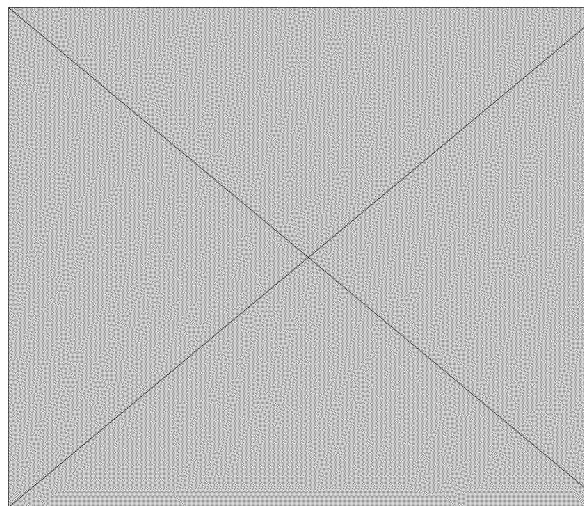

- Russia and Syria unleashed a coordinated assault by land, air and sea on Wednesday, seeking to reverse recent gains by rebel group.

Obama apologizes to aid group over botched Afghan strike

President Obama called the head of Doctors Without Borders to apologize for the airstrike that killed 12 aid workers in Afghanistan.

Israeli fears rise amid wave of stabbings

Palestinian assailants carried out a series of stabbings across Israel on Wednesday.

Editorial & Opinion

Jump to BostonGlobe.com The World Section →

editorial

Folding a losing hand

- Mayor Walsh has spent more than $1 million fighting the Everett casino, but now it's time to move on.

editorial

Steve Wynn's unwelcome, and unnecessary, libel lawsuit

- The legal action is an unwelcome escalation in the legal brinksmanship surrounding his Everett casino.

opinion | ben mezrich

The inevitability of fantasy sports

- Without realizing it, we've all been watching the birth of a multibillion-dollar industry — one that even a few bumps in the road can't derail.

Metro

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Editorial & Opinion Section →

Year since Long Island's closure finds safety net still tattered

- Recovery and detox beds have yet to be replaced, and many former residents have bounced between programs.

Emerson College may turn Colonial into student center

- The change would be a radical transformation for the Colonial Theatre and make it a type of front porch for Emerson's campus.

Boston City Council could get 14 percent raise

The council would get the raise without taking a vote, through a maneuver not used since at least 1990, officials said.

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Metro Section →

Business & Tech

DraftKings CEO insists company can police itself

- In an exclusive interview, Jason Robins said DraftKings is "a very ethical company" that sports fans can trust to handle their money.

Dell said to be in talks to acquire EMC

- The possibility of an EMC merger would worry many in Massachusetts, where EMC employs about 9,500 people.

TJX CEO Carol Meyrowitz is exiting in style

- Meyrowitz, 61, will become executive chairman of TJX Cos., and Ernie Herrman will succeed her as chief executive on Jan. 31.

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Business & Tech Section →

Obituaries

Grace Lee Boggs, at 100; rights activist for 7 decades

- Ms. Boggs waged a war of inspiration for civil rights, labor, feminism, and the environment with an unflagging faith that revolutionary justice was just around the corner.

Bruce Wennerstrom, 88; founded beauty contest for cars

Mr. Wennerstrom became smitten with automobiles as a New York teenager and, with his wife, inaugurated the annual Greenwich Concours d'Elegance competition and auction.

Eleanor M. Morey, at 89; formerly ran VA's nutrition services

Ms. Morey ran the food program at a hospital for veterans, planning menus for hundreds of former World War II soldiers who needed special diets.

Sports

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Obituaries Section →

Patriots Notebook

Tom Brady shrugs off Greg Hardy's comments

The Patriots quarterback said his only focus is on Sunday's game against Dallas, not trash talk.

Jets at Bruins, Thursday at 7 p.m., (NESN)

A pivotal season looms for Bruins' David Krejci

The prolific Bruins center is coming off injuries, has lost his longtime linemate, and has a large contract to live up to.

FLUTO SHINZAWA | ON HOCKEY

Ryan Spooner and David Pastrnak could be difference-makers

The pair of skilled forwards could be the swing players who launch the Bruins back into the playoffs.

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Sports Section →

Thursday Scene

On the MBTA's Patriots Train, everyone's a fan - almost

The Pats trains have been running from Boston since 1971, but somehow they remain relatively unknown.

Ty Burr

A funny thing happened on the way out of the Forum

Say what you want about Boston, but how many cities can pull an overflow mob on a blustery October day to hear a philosophy professor and his friends?

Television review

Grins and gimmicks on the sidewalks of NY

Two shows, "Billy on the Street" and "Middle of the Night Show," mine New York for comedy.

Comics

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Thursday Scene Section →

Crossword

Circulars

BostonGlobe.com

Jump to BostonGlobe.com Circulars Section →

here. If you wish to unsubscribe from all BostonGlobe.com newsletters, please click here. Please note: this will unsubscribe you from the newsletters only. If you wish to cancel your BostonGlobe.com subscription, please call 1-888-MY-GLOBE (1-888-694-5623).

Manage Your Account | Terms of Service | Privacy Policy | Help Center | Advertise

Address:
The Boston Globe
135 Morrissey Blvd.
Boston, MA 02125

©Copyright 2015 Boston Globe Media Partners, LLC